Access to this website and use of the information contained herein are at the user's own risk.

Through this website you are able to link to other websites that are not under the control of autobiz. We have no control over the nature, content or availability of those sites.

Privacy Policy

Autobiz is committed to handling your personal information responsibly. In accordance with our privacy policy, we will save identifying personal information only with your express permission.

When you visit the website, data is collected on the time and date you visited the site as well as the pages you looked at. This data is not connected to your personal information and is collected for internal statistical use only.

Autobiz may use your personal information to improve how the website works (site traffic and server optimization), customer management (updating our databases), product surveys (user behaviour, usability and customer satisfaction) and marketing (SEO, keywords). We only use the minimum amount of data necessary for each purpose. We will not share your data with third parties without your express permission.

We share personal data with governmental authorities according to local law. All autobiz employees are pledged to the utmost confidentiality.

You may at any time consult, correct or delete any of your personal data saved on this site by contacting us at market@autobiz.com.

The publisher of this website expressly forbids that the contact information on this website be used for the purposes of business advertising without written permission or a previously existing business relationship. All sellers and persons mentioned on this website forbid herewith any commercial use or transmission of their data.

Cookies

We use cookies in certain areas of our website. A cookie is a very small text file that is sent to your computer and stored there so that the website will 'recognise' you the next time you use the site. Cookies do not contain viruses and will not damage your computer. The cookies used on our website contain no personally identifiable information. We use the information in the cookies to make it easier for you to use our website and customize it to your needs.

Of course, you can also use our website without cookies. If you don't want cookies to be stored on your computer, you can disable cookies on your browser, and you can always delete cookies from your browser by modifying your browser settings. If you disable cookies, however, you will not be able to access all this website's features.

Security

autobiz UK takes every possible technical and organizational security measure to protect the data we manage against accidental or intentional manipulation, loss, destruction, or access by unauthorized persons. Our data security measures continually improve as technology becomes more sophisticated.

Google Analytics

This website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Alphabet, Inc. (Google). Google Analytics uses cookies, or tiny text files that are stored on your computer and allow us to analyse website activity. The information gathered through the cookie about website activity is generally sent to and stored at a Google server in the US. As part of its service to this website's owners, Google uses the information it collects to evaluate your use of this website, create reports on website activity and provide other services related to website activity and internet use. The IP address provided by your browser to Google Analytics will not be associated with other Google data. You can set your browser to disable cookies; however, in this case you will not be able to access all the website's features. You can keep Google from accessing and using the cookie with your site use information and IP address by downloading and installing the Google Analytics Opt-out Add-on, available at <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=en-GB> .
